

ANIMAL SAFARI!

- A. Here you will find on the wall, an animal which is very useful to people in many different ways.
- B. Which animal never forgets? Can you see one peeping round Colonel Morgan's memorial
- C. Stand in front of the Nave Altar and look up into the corners of the vault above you. What can you see? Are they human or animal?
- D. How many of our prickly friends can you find on gravestones in the North Transept?
- E. Look at the stained glass window above you and see if you can find a deer.
- F. You might be able to find this animal in the Holy Chapel. He is very faint but look hard and you will find him leading Jesus into Jerusalem.
- G. The King of the Jungle lies at the feet of Sir Arnaud de Gaveston. What does the creature have in his mouth?
- H. Look at the floor tiles to find more fantastic animals. Draw one and then name it. Use the back of this sheet.
- I. The Lady Chapel is full of animals. You will find them in the wall paintings, the windows and the wood carvings. How many different animals can you find? List them.
- J. St Giles stands on the Great Screen with his hand raised to stroke which animal?

- K. Can you find two animals people keep as pets crawling down the wall on the north side of the screen?
- L. Up amongst the ceiling bosses you should be able to find a very fast animal.
- M. How many of these can you find in the South Transept?
- N. Can you spot some cheeky little field animals on the Vaughan Memorial?
- O. Something is eating Bishop Browne's staff! What is it?
- P. Up above you in the vault you will find something very odd! Which animal is in the mouth of another?
- Q. There is a fast moving animal on Edward Henry le Marchant's memorial on the wall! What is it?