

FRIENDS' WINTER EVENTS

All talks will take place in the Paul Woodhouse Suite

Rev Canon Nick Fennemore: "Life as a Chaplain for the NHS" – 22 January, 2.30pm

Nick has spent 33 years of his ministry working for the NHS as a chaplain and so has a wealth of stories and experiences of working in acute hospitals, hospices and the community.

Dr Cindy Wood, lecturer of Medieval History at the University of Winchester: "The Cage Chantries of Winchester Cathedral 1366 to 1555" – 13 February, 2.30pm

This talk will explore the largest group of these uniquely English Late Medieval monuments. These chantries, all founded by bishops, will be explored as survivors of a lively belief in Purgatory and how to mitigate its expected horrors in this period up to their Dissolution, under Edward VI, in 1545.

Sophie Hacker: "Stained Glass Windows – the Creative Process" - 14 March, 7pm for 7.30pm

Sophie will share the journey of how a new stained glass window comes into being. From initial brief, site visits, converting the preliminary sketches into a full design, choosing the glass colours and presenting the theology of the window to the client, this fully illustrated talk will explain all the processes with several examples of her own work.

Coffee and Cake: Our monthly coffee mornings will take place in the Undercroft on 21 September, 19 October, 16 November, 14 December, 18 January and 15 February.
