SKATER'S CODE OF CONDUCT AND ASSUMPTION OF RISK AGREEMENT

Skating is entirely at your own risk. The management will not be responsible for any loss or injury incurred.

Skaters and Spectators understand and agree to the following:

- By engaging in skating both skaters and spectators are deemed to have knowledge of, and assume the risk of skating which include but are not limited to the following:
- a) Injuries that result from collision or contact with other skaters or other individuals who are on the skating surface
- b) Injuries that result from falls
- c) Injuries that involve objects or artificial structures that are within the properly intended path of travel of the skater

Skaters and Spectators also agree to:

- Maintain reasonable control of his/her speed at all times
- Read and abide by all the posted signs and warnings and co-operate with the Ice Staff
- Maintain a proper lookout to avoid other skaters, objects or conditions on the surface of the rink
- Accept responsibility for knowing the range of his/her abilities while on skates, and skate within the limits of that ability and as appropriate to the session on which he/she is skating
- Refrain from skating whilst under the influence of drugs, alcohol or other control impairing substance
- Leave the surface of the ice when resurfacing maintenance is taking place, when sessions end or as directed by staff
- Refrain from taking food and drink onto the rink surface
- Refrain from acting in a matter that may cause or contribute to injury of themselves or any other person
- Refrain from instigating or becoming involved in any type of altercations with any other skater or spectator and engaging in abusive, abrasive or disorderly conduct
- Not sit, climb or put feet on the barrier

We hold the right to refuse entry onto the ice to anyone not complying with the above. Skaters asked to leave or removed from the Ice Rink area will not be refunded for their session fee if breaking this Code of Conduct.
